German Losses on Arras Front Most Terrific

LONDON, April 26.—The outstanding feature of the second phase of the battle of Arras is the definite establishment of superiority in artillery by the British, and it is due to this superiority that they have been able to maintain a successful offensive, said Major-General Maurice, in his weekly talk to-day with the Associated Press.

General Maurice declared the Germans had drawn on their strategic reserve and brought up great forces in an attempt to stem the onslaught but that the British machine was working without a hitch. The German losses had been terrific and thousands of dead Germans, he said, were lying in front of the British lines.

In the 18 days of the Arras battle, General Maurice continued, the British casualties had been something less than half what they were in the corresponding period of the Somme offensive, while the numbers of prisoners and guns captured by the British forces were much greater than in the same period on the Somme.

Another important feature of the fighting, said the general, is the fact that the British have definitely established their superiority.

Sudden Death of Mr. A. Jones

Mr. Andrew Jones, father of Mrs. Alex. Cruickshank, died suddenly on Tuesday last week on Corp. R. Geo's homestead, six miles east of town. Mr. Jones had been staying with the family of late years and moved with them a month ago to his farm; he was the chief man of the household in Mr. Cruickshank's absence on Provincial bridge work and, after a good tea, was hitching up a horse to a buggy to go to a neighbor for some seeds, when he collapsed with heart failure. As he did not hear him drive out, the family made investigation and found him lying on the ground dazed beside the horse. Assistance was immediately given and an endeavor made to get deceased back to the house. Unfortunately the deceased expired before he could be further attended to. Mr. Jones was 79 years of age and was active for his years. He farmed east of Lacombe for some years, but came here the last time from Washington. Mrs. Cruickshank and her family will miss him sorely. Coroner Dr. George drove out, and found the death due to natural causes. He will be buried at Red Deer cemetery today.

Eckville

Mr. E. Michener's meeting on Wednesday evening last was very well attended, and much interest taken in the speeches given by Mr. Gilmore, Mr. Kenny and Mr. E. Michener.

Mrs. Shorroek entertained a few friends at afternoon tea on Thursday last.

Mr. Palmer spent the week-end in the north country.

Mr. Eckford, the road counselor, has had a new bridge put in on the south road; this was badly needed at this particular point. Now, if the one across the guard River were raised, and a new one built across the Medicine River opposite the Village, things in the road line would be straight.

Mr. Haggerty, of New Hill, was here on business Monday last.

The land is drying up slowly, some have commenced work on the road. The road councilors will have their work cut out this spring owing to the excessive amount of water the grades are mostly washed out or badly cut up so that travel after dark is dangerous.

Mr. Hertram has returned, he missed connection, so did not go to Detroit this time.

U.S. Preparing to Seize Ships

WASHINGTON, April 30th.—Supporting the resolution to authorize President Wilson to requisition enemy merchant ships in American ports, Senator Reed declared it "would not be a blunder but a crime to hesitate longer in taking the step to meet Germany's ruthlessness in submarine warfare." He called attention to the German chancellor's announcement that the submarine campaign had destroyed 1,600,000 tons of ships in 60 days and pointed out that there is an "almost equal amount in our ports which should be made the target of these attacks."

A resolution to authorize the taking over and use of the ships is awaiting report from the judiciary committee.

"Every hour is important," said Senator Lodge. "I hope the President is having these ships prepared now and that they will put to sea at once."

"They are being put in shape," said Senator Smith of Georgia. "and some of them will put to sea probably this week."

BRavery of Newfoundland Troops Wins Panegyrics

Left 1,500 Germans Dead in One Trench—Some Phenomena Being Repeated.

LONDON, April 30.—In a dispatch from British headquarters, Sunday, Perry Robinson, the Times correspondent, describes the bravery of the Newfoundland troops, who left 1,500 Germans dead in one trench alone, and also special feats of certain English county regiments. His dispatch concludes:

"A recently captured report of Gen. von Daelow on the experiences of the German first army has instructive passages. This is so especially where it dwells on our superiority in the air. It tells how our airmen attack the infantry and the trenches with bombs and machine guns, and adds:

"GERMAN MORALE LOWERED

"Even though the losses thus caused are comparatively small, the occurrence has an extremely lowering effect on the morale of our troops, who at first were helpless."

"The innumerable balloons hanging like grapes in clusters over our lines produce a similar effect, for the troops thought that individual men and machine guns could be picked out and were watched by them and subjected to fire directed by the observation."

PHENOMENA REPEATING

"All the phenomena of the Somme battle are repeating themselves here. The Germans are now throwing against us new divisions with great rapidity, and are contesting every inch of ground, just as they did at the High Wood on the Somme. Then there was a desperate struggle to the last foot of the high ground with inspired desperation. Now presumably it is because the urgency of imposing all possible delay so as to admit of the completion of the defensive positions in the rear that these troops here, as there, often fight with great heroism and their losses are terrific. Whatever troops come against us are broken, and we continue to gain ground."

A Call from the Trenches

For whom are you knitting? Perhaps a son or loved one on active work or the Red Cross Society who send their socks to the sick or wounded in the hospitals. How about the loved ones at home to keep boys in the trenches who have not them supplied with hand knit socks. Will you increase your pace of work and knit for them also? An opportunity is open for you to procure free wool to be made into socks on Tuesday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock, in the Public Library Room. These socks are knit every evening through the Working Committee of St. John Ambulance Association of Edmonton direct in seven pound parcels to the soldiers in the trenches, whose addresses are supplied by friends. As well as socks, each parcel usually contains toilet paper, gum, hand sugar, sometimes handkerchiefs, and "comfort shirts." These latter articles are made of these cloth and dipped in lysol to keep off the obnoxious vermin.

The Chevrolet Car

You show good judgment in interesting yourself in a Chevrolet. It gives you what you want in a car with the minimum expense.

For here is a car that will meet with your approval in every way possible.

It will do anything that any other automobile will do and it will do it at less expense.

Just what do you demand of a motor car?

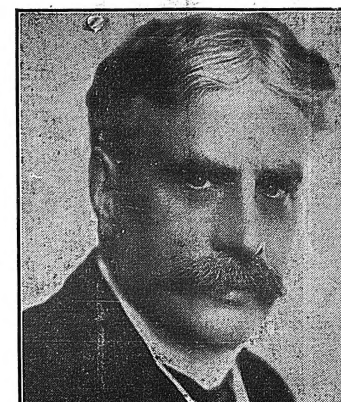

First of all, you want mechanical dependability. You want a car that can depend on. You want to feel sure of it. The Chevrolet is such a car. It has made good with nearly a hundred thousand cars of the Chevrolet valve-in-head motor. This is the ideal power plant, insuring maximum efficiency.

Next to mechanical dependability, you want a car you will be proud to own—a good looking car, a car with the make-up taken from the pains. The Chevrolet is such a car.

You are interested, too, in economy. You want a car that does not eat up gasoline quickly. It is a common thing for the Chevrolet to make twenty-seven miles on a gallon of gasoline. Your pocket is therefore very small. Owning a Chevrolet is never a burden. Records prove this claim. Only recently an owner travelled over thirty thousand miles with repairs amounting to $2.11.

These points mean much to you, and it is for these very reasons that the Chevrolet is worthy of the closest investigation on your part.

Michener Bros. have sold eighteen cars so far this year and have eleven more cars on the way.

A Farewell Social

The Parish Hall was nicely filled with a sympathetic audience on Monday evening last when the congregation of St. Luke's church presented Archdeacon Dewdney and his estimable wife with a cut glass water set and table mirror. There was a pleasant and entertaining programme provided by the choir in the upper hall where a couple of choruses were given by the chorists were rendered by Mrs. Brynarsdottir, Miss Kate Carvell, and Mr. G. G. piano selections by Miss Gally, and a comic recitation by J. P. Dyer. F. Billingham acted as chairman and Miss Poyon and Mrs. Carvell as accompanists.

After the entertainment a splendid supper was served in the basement, to which all did ample justice. At the close of which Mr. Billingham, people's warden, made the presentation. He spoke feelingly of the splendid service Archdeacon Dewdney had given the church at Red Deer when we needed a friend, and also of the help Mrs. Dewdney had given to all branches of church work, finishing up with the Presidency of the W. A. J. A. Carvell also made a few remarks along the line of duty and service, the Archdeacon being called to higher and more important duties as Chief Missioner of the church in this diocese and was compelled to live in Calgary in connection with his duties. The Archdeacon replied stating that he regretted leaving Red Deer, where he had made many friends, but was compelled to move to Calgary to attend to his numerous duties. He would send part of his summer holiday to his numerous duties. He thanked those present for the pleasant reception given them by the congregation.

The evening's proceedings closed with best wishes to Archdeacon and Mrs. Dewdney in their new home. Archdeacon Dewdney left for Calgary, and Mrs. Dewdney will leave on Friday next.

Heavy Casualty Lists.

OTTAWA, April 26.—Canadian casualty lists continue to come through the records office in great numbers, though fortunately the predominant percentage are of wounded and the majority of the latter are slight cases. The lists issued today brought the total announced in Easter Sunday to 9,626 of all ranks.

It is understood that owing to the great influx of names the casualty office is far behind in the work, and that the names issued today dated back a week in receipt at headquarters.

WOUNDED

Among the wounded in this neighborhood are the following:

W. S. Biegs, Inisfail.
F. Jenkins, Lacombe.
O. M. Conrad, Clive.
R. A. Smith, Inisfail.
E. A. Sim, Edwell.
J. Mitchell, Inisfail.

Roll of Honour

Word came last week that W. H. Muldrew, son of Mrs. Muldrew of the Alberta Ladies' College, had been killed in action. Pte. Muldrew was one of Red Deer's most promising young men. He graduated from our high school, and was teaching at Penhold when he enlisted in the 89th. He was in a machine gun section with Pte. Cecil Carwell at Vimy Ridge, but it is not known whether they were struck with the same shell or not.

J. P. Snider, Sidney Songhurst, and Walter, Gowan, all of Hill End, were reported among the killed in action last week. These three young men were close chums, they joined the 89th together and they were not divided in death. Pte. Gowan was a grandson of Sir James Gowan, of Edinburgh, Scotland. There were many prominent young men in their district and highly respected.

Mrs. D. W. Wilson, sister of Pte. E. Skinner, received word a few days ago that he was killed on September 20th last. This was an official message. It was reported at one time that Pte. Skinner was still alive, but the report has now been proved to be without foundation.

A cable was received yesterday that Lance-Sergeant William Richards, oldest son of J. Richards, of Horn Hill, had made the supreme sacrifice. Willie, as he was known by all his friends, was one of the best and truest of boys, and a thoroughly good Christian young man.

Word came to his parents yesterday that Corp. Bert. Usherwood had been killed in action. Utterly fearless of danger, he was a brave and a true soldier. He was a good soldier and brave lad, and had gained the respect of all by his manly bearing and fearlessness.

Canadians Repeated Their Heroism of Vimy Ridge

LONDON, April 29.—To the Canadians, conquerors of the famous Vimy Ridge, fell the work of capturing Arras, two miles from the Drocourt-Queant line and east of Vimy Ridge. In a brilliant assault the Canadians took the village. German counter-attacks failed to move them, and in hand-to-hand fighting the attacking forces were driven back. Fierce encounters, in which the bayonet and the hand were frequently, marked the fighting on the front from Vimy Ridge south across the Scarpe to Monchy-lez-Prenoy.

When dawn broke over the battle field Sunday it found the Canadians holding tenaciously to Arras-En-Hochelle, which they captured Saturday in a thrilling battle. The night had not been a restful one, for the Germans threw a heavy counter-attack against them, which required hard work to put down with rifle and machine gun fire. Heavy casualties were inflicted on the Germans.

Canadian Headquarters in France, April 29 (by the Canadian Overseas Correspondent).—The battle taken out by the Canadians this morning was about 2,500 yards in length, with a penetration of the enemy's line at the deepest point of 1,800 yards. From a ridge over Farbus, whence a view could be obtained of the Arras-Oppy slope, up which the Canadian and British advance was made yesterday, I watched the tremendous spectacle of the last fierce burst of men from hundreds of runs. It was Vimy Ridge over again in that respect.

TEUTONS TAKEN BY SURPRISE

The infantry went forward in the light of dawn and from the ridge their progress could be followed only by the lifting of the barrage from time to time as the enemy gave way. The Teutons were taken by surprise, the first prisoners said, and while expecting attack, they were expected an assault so soon. A few of the higher officers were in their dugouts or front trenches when our movement was launched.

For a time the Germans gave evidence of lack of direction or control. However, they speedily rallied and put up a stiff fight from the cellars of Arras, and had to be driven out with bayonets and bombs. The moppers up, as the men who clean out the enemy from his dugouts are called, had a big task on the right of the line. A Manitoba Battalion was held for a time by uncut wire, with skillfully placed machine-guns behind it, and suffered considerably before it could cut its way through. The enemy's line was one of a bunch of twenty officers to go over from Sarcee camp last summer. He was attached to the Sherbrooke at Red Deer for a couple of years.

Mr. G. W. Ball has two brothers wounded—one Frank, serious gun shot wound in left hip and the other Alex, wounded in the leg. Both left Calgary with the 89th, and are with the companies at Red Deer.

At Red Deer, on April 25th, 1917, to Mr. and Mrs. Sam I. Smith, a son.

Fifth Canadian Division Crosses into France

OTTAWA, April 27.—The fifth Canadian division, which is in command of Major-General Garnet Hughes, son of the former minister of militia, has been moved from England to France to fill the gap caused by the casualties in the battle of Arras.

The division includes the Irish Rangers and 150th French Battalion of Montreal, respectively under Cols. Donohue and Barre. The infantry brigade, Regina, under Brigadier General Embury, the 14th brigade, under Brigadier General Switt, Quebec, and the 15th brigade under Brigadier General E. Ashton, Brandon.

SAD DROWNING FATALITY

James R., the little three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Rowland, was accidentally drowned in Waskasau creek Saturday afternoon last. The little fellow had only been missed a very few minutes by his mother, who started to search for him and failed to find him. The alarm was given, and at last his little body was found in the creek.

It is supposed he walked too close to the edge of the creek, and the bank, which is composed of sand and gravel, gave way allowing the child to fall into the water which was deep enough to drown him at this point.

Dr. George was quickly called but nothing could be done to resuscitate him when found.

The funeral took place on Monday from the family residence, Rev. W. G. Brown conducting the service. Great sympathy is felt for Mr. and Mrs. Reid in their sorrow and bereavement.

Canadian Casualties

OTTAWA, April 29th.—To-night's casualty list brings the grand total of reports handed out by the record office since Easter Monday, April 9, to 11,770.

Dr. Clark Opposed to an Election in War Times

OTTAWA, April 30.—Before the adjournment of the house to-night there was an interesting debate on a motion by A. K. Maclean, that no further appointments should be made to the senate until after a general election. Mr. Maclean argued that the government was really a war emergency government since the extension bill of last session. No vacancies due to death were being filled in the commons and it was unfair to one political party that the other should make all the senate appointments during a war emergency term.

Sir Thomas White and Hon. Arthur Meighen opposed the motion on behalf of the government, agreed that the government possesses the full right to fill vacancies in the senate. Mr. Meighen said that Mr. Maclean was wrong in assuming that senate appointments were a matter of party patronage. They might better be compared to the appointment of judges. Sir Thomas said that while it was desirable that elections should be avoided during war time, there should be no objection to the filling of senate vacancies.

Sir Michael Clark asked the government not to take a definite stand on the matter until the return of the prime minister. The government, he said, should not offer opposition to the opposition because they were human. The party responsible for bringing on election will be greatly blamed by the country. "If it comes at a time when our men are falling in thousands," he said, "it is bound to have a destroying effect on national unity."

The motion was declared "lost on division."

Previously, the house passed a resolution moved by Dr. Schaffner, declaring for the removal of British embassies on Canadian cattle and declared a resolution moved by J. G. Turfitt favoring proportional representation.

GLEAM OF SUNSHINE

Story Concerning an Automobile Accident, Kidnaped Man and Stolen Heart.

By MILDRED CAROLINE GOOD RIDGE.

"A pretty girl," mused Arthur Perry, and his heart warmed at the radiant smile bestowed upon him for such a mere trifle as restoring to the superior being in question a shopping list she had dropped.

It was on the main street of the bustling little city of Wellston. The young lady had a companion who seemed to be an older married sister. The latter led a little child of four by the hand. As they passed to glance into a show window the younger lady gave the child a pretty toy of a ball to engross its attention. In doing so the scrap of paper in her hand fluttered away in the breeze. Arthur recovered it. Hence the grateful smile and his present reflective mood.

"But," soliloquized Arthur, "I had better get my mind on something more prosaic than pretty girls, although that one was a gleam of purest sunshine. I wonder where I am going to get a chance to eat my dinner?" In his next thought, however, he was with that classic, intelligent face of his, he did not resemble a tramp, and yet here he found himself in a strange town without so much as a single cent in his pockets.

Two years previous, an expert linguist, Arthur had graduated from college. For a year he lectured in two institutions of learning. Then he had temporary charge of the foreign correspondence of a large importing firm. They failed, and with all his splendid education Arthur had been unable to secure a new position. He had learned that a large manufacturing concern in the city he was now in needed a man of his capabilities. He had spent his last dollar for railroad fare to find himself stranded, the prospective position having been filled.

He sighed as he gave a last thought to the pretty girl. He smiled as he glanced at the little cherub-faced child playing at the curb. The combination suggested home, love and happiness—what strange things to him during two lost, lonely years!

"Look out, there!"

Of a sudden the warning cry rang out shrilly. The driver of a cab stood ing at the curb uttered it. And then Arthur Perry awoke into action with all the agility and skill of his splendid athletic training at the call of courage and peril.

"Man Your Automobile Run Down."

What had happened had come so quickly that only a practiced eye like that of Arthur could take it in at a glance. The little child had dropped the ball and it had bounded over the curb and rolled to the middle of the stone-paved street. Naturally the child had followed it. As the warning of the driver rang out the little one was stooping over to regain the pretty toy, all unconscious of hovering danger. Just at that moment an automobile whirled around the corner headed direct for the helpless being in the course.

The turn of a second might have seen the little one crushed to a shapeless mass, for the chauffeur of the auto had not time to check the machine. It was not three feet distant when on a sudden, rather than a run, Arthur Perry reached the child. There was just one thing to do, and he accomplished it. With a rough, heavy push that caused the little one to fly out with fright and pain, he drove the imperiled infant almost to the opposite curb and then—a shriek from the pavement, a sickening blow and the intrepid rescuer knew no more.

It was perhaps two hours later when Lillian Trevor reappeared at the scene of the accident. She had been the show window in time to see the stricken man seized quickly by the chauffeur of the auto, lifted into it and dashed away before any one could interfere. Then there was the haste and excitement of getting the rescued child and her hysterical sister home. And now of her own volition, her mind full of that white, silent fact, she had glimpsed for a passing moment, Lillian was urged on to find the noble rescuer of her little niece and thank him.

She spoke to the policeman at the corner, to proprietors of several stands, but it was only when she addressed an old cabman that she gleaned the information she desired.

"Yes, ma'am," said this individual, "I saw the accident. It was a flash, a pickup and away they went. Kidnaped, ma'am."

"Why, what do you mean?" faltered the inexperienced Lillian.

"It was a rich man's machine that hit the brave young fellow, for I saw the number. You see, there's so much of the kidnapping down and courts are people nowadays that there's a regular system of spiriting the injured party away, sending him up and giving him a little money so as to get out of a big damage suit. See?"

Lillian did see and her tender heart beat more pitifully than ever for the handsome young fellow made practically a prisoner, shut away from loving friends. Then her eyes brightened and a brave resolution came into her fair face as she learned from the cabman the name of the owner of the automobile that had so nearly killed her niece.

It was about ten o'clock the following morning when Lillian rang the door bell of the palatial home of Robert Barr, a retired city merchant. He looked puzzled as she was shown into his presence.

"Mr. Barr," she said plainly, as he courteously asked the object of her call, "I have come concerning a young man whom your automobile ran down and spirited away yesterday afternoon."

The man of wealth flushed conspicuously. He seemed embarrassed, partly from the girl's fancied insult, and partly from the fact that he had not a word to say for himself. "I—I hope," he finally spoke in a guarded way, "that you have not come to make any trouble. I will be frank with you. I am having the injured young man given the very best of care in my own home, to avoid public and some preposterous damage suit, for my doctor says that he is not seriously injured."

"I am so glad to hear that," said Lillian, with a great breath of relief. "I imagine you must be the young lady he was constantly referring to in his first delirium," insinuated Mr. Barr.

"The worst burden of my thoughts seemed to be a beautiful miss with a little child."

"It—it could not have been my dear," murmured Lillian, but she flushed faintly. "May I call each day, nurse him if I may, at least bring him flowers, fruit, books, so he may know grateful friends are thinking of him? Oh, sir, he risked his life to save our dear little one!"

"You must be some mystic fairy, Miss Trevor," said Mr. Barr a few days later to his now welcome caller.

"He is in it," insisted Lillian. "It was through you that young Perry came to me and now I find him an indispensable treasure. For years I have been seeking some of the languages to classify my large foreign library, and here he is at my hand, well and happy."

"Even though he was kidnapped?" submitted Lillian, with a smile.

"Oh, that was a double deed that eventful day," declared Miss Trevor. "You mean?"

"That you had already kidnapped his heart."

"And pretty Lillian flushed, and knew it was so within the ensuing week, and was glad of it.

ARE NOT MOORISH BLOOD

Moors, Fanatical Fighters of the Philippines, Though Mohammedans, Belong to Malayian Race.

It is rather curious about those "Moors" that we are fighting in the Philippines. "Moors" means Moors, and the name was applied to these people by the Spanish for the reason that, like the real Moors of North Africa, they are Mohammedans. To the mind of the Spanish settlers in the Philippines, any people who were also warlike were necessarily Moors.

As a matter of fact, these Moors are pure Malayian. They came originally from the Malay-Indonesian archipelago, and their ancestors were converted to Mohammedanism by missionaries of the faith who wandered by Malaysia from India. They possess all the fierceness of their brethren, the Malayian head hunters of Borneo, and it is well known that the Mohammedan religion has never had the effect to reduce or tame the native fierceness of any people.

These Moors are among the most fanatical Mohammedans in the world. Centuries of force on the part of the Spaniards have had no effect whatever upon them. The same rule which the Spaniards followed in calling these Malayian Moors, they also applied in the name they gave to the pagan inhabitants of the Philippines, whom they called "Indians," after the natives of India, but of Peru and Mexico, from which countries the Spanish invaded these distant islands. The Peruvians, Mexicans and natives of the West Indies were called Indians. They were brown, wild and pagan. Consequently, in the opinion of these conquerors of higher ethnological knowledge, these people were Indians. And "Indians" the pagan and Christian natives of the Philippines have remained to this day to the Spaniards. We call them Filipinos, and in our spelling of this word, though not in that of the name, at the head of the procession were representatives of the French War of 1870-71, the German War of 1870-71, the Spanish War of 1898, the Russian War of 1904-05, the Italian War of 1911-12, the Turkish War of 1912-13, the Chinese War of 1911-12, the Japanese War of 1914-15, the American War of 1917-18, the The Council Meeting

The regular meeting of the City Council was held on Thursday evening last, with His Worship Mayor G. W. Smith in the chair, and Aldermen Gubraith, Lord, Day and Harvey in attendance.

CORRESPONDENCE

John T. Moore wrote the Council stating that he would appreciate the Council's endeavor to have one thousand of his credit with the Western General Treasurer should be the credit of the City on his taxes. The Secretary stated Mr. W. A. Moore was not willing to do this. Jno. Perrie, Deputy Minister of Municipal Affairs, wrote the Council stating that monies received for sale of land for taxes by the City for land in North Red Deer should be divided between the two Municipalities in proportion to the amount of taxes due each organization. An offer was received from Oiler, Hammond & Nanton re taxes. Filed. A letter from Redfield was read enquiring particulars re iron pipe on hand. The Commissioners will write particulars.

Messrs. Howlett and Hammond wrote asking for four foot walk on south side 1st Street S.E. in front of Block B, as same was badly needed.

The Council seemed adverse to building any walks this year. Campbell, Wilson & Horne wrote asking for a crossing over the sidewalk on Gable Avenue.

The Council were not in favor of this, and the Mayor said he thought the difficulty could be solved by fixing up the street. The Bank of Montreal wrote that they were pleased to allow the City the same rebate as they have done previously, namely 6 per cent. on all accounts paid before maturity. The Mayor of Vancouver invited Mayor Smith and the Council to the B.C. Commercial Travellers' War Dance and Carnival on 2nd to 5th of May.

A. W. Dingman wrote the Council that he would visit the Council in a few days to consider further the proposed gas franchise.

Oiler, Hammond & Nanton wrote the City through the solicitor that they were prepared to recommend their principals to make payment of 1916 taxes in three monthly instalments, in April, May and June, provided the City would be willing to carry the balance of 1915 taxes over for one year without any further penalties.

RE TAX COLLECTIONS

Payne & Graham, city solicitors, reported on the collection of taxes put into their hands for collection as follows:

With regard to the taxes which we have for collection at the present time they number in all 194. We find going through our books that 63 of these have paid in full, 38 of the others, payment has been made on account. This would leave a balance of 93 accounts in which there has been nothing paid. Many of these parties have spoken to us and are arranging for settlement. Others have agreed to make payment on account as soon as possible. There are some of the 93 who have been absolutely indifferent and who should be compelled to pay. We are pleased to state that these are few.

We find that on going through our records that the following amounts have been paid on the taxes which we have for collection: February 8, $620.58; February 28th, $1232.37; March 31st, $800.16; April 26th, $1507.04. Total, $10266.16.

There have been three accounts paid, one of which has been paid in full, and another a payment has been made on account and the party has promised to pay the balance in two months. The third one has not been paid, but the time for signing judgment has not yet expired.

REPORT ON BRIDGES

Engineer Dawe reported on the condition of bridges within the city limits. In brief, 5th Street N.E. bridge is in very bad shape throughout and should be replaced, or thoroughly repaired.

3rd Street N.E. bridge is in good condition and will require no attention.

2nd Street N.E. foot bridge is in good condition but needs slight repairs.

Ross Street bridge is in bad shape and repairs will cost half of new bridge. Recommend that bridge be closed until something can be done.

1st Street South bridge is in good shape for this year.

Suspension bridge into Park—This is in good shape but needs repair to north end, and would be improved by raising north end.

COMMISSIONERS REPORT

The Commissioners brought in the following report: The Mayor and Council, City of Red Deer, Gentlemen:

We called for applications for rental of nuisance grounds for the current year, and submit herewith the applications received. We accepted, subject to your approval, that of C. L. Bagley.

We requested Engineer Dawe to report on the conditions of the bridges in Red Deer, and submit herewith his report: It is evident that we are faced with the necessity of replacing three important bridges, on Ross Street, 1st Street South, and on 5th Street North. All of these bridges should be permanent structures, preferably of concrete, but as labor and material is high at present, and we are under the necessity of keeping down capital expenditures to the minimum, we believe the building of any of these should be deferred for the present, and the old bridges repaired at the least possible cost consistent with safety. We therefore recommend:

(1st). That Engineer Dawe be requested to report on the best method of repairing the Ross Street bridge;

(2nd). That the repairs to the other bridges be made by him be made.

We submit reports of our Solicitors on the application of the Village of North Red Deer for exemption from school taxes on Village property.

Last year we graded some roads in the City with the little grader. This work was done from time to time, using the City team and foreman whenever other pressing.

As a result the roads were considerably improved at a little cost to the City. This year, with your approval, we will continue this work and try to finish out 1st Ave. East, and 2nd Avenue East, and other roads if possible.

We are also trying to obtain a small street cleaner's cart for use in picking up stones and rubbish from the streets.

We are advised by A. W. Dingman that he will be here this week to further discuss the gas franchise. We have been waiting for him to come up for some time, but hope to get the matter finally arranged, so that it may be laid before you for action at the next meeting.

Night constable McEwan resigned to accept another position, and J. Halstead has been put on duty in his place temporarily. We are not prepared at present to report further on police work, but hope to be able to do so at the next meeting.

Commissioner Stephenson has taken up with the Military Authorities the question of accounts for Exhibition buildings and the result will be submitted to you when the matter is settled. The Military authorities are fixing up the buildings preparatory to turning them back to the City. We requested Ald. Lord to act for the Council in this matter, and he has kindly done so.

We are not prepared to report on the Bandstand question at this writing as we have not received plans and estimates from the Band officials.

After fully considering the question of a swimming pool, it is our opinion that it would not be advisable for the City to undertake any scheme for providing such until such time as a proper pool can be built and properly supervised during the time in use.

The By-law governing bill posting provides that bills shall not be posted in Red Deer except by a licensed bill poster, and by him only on bill boards on locations approved by the Commissioners.

We submit herewith accounts for your authorization to pay.

We beg to submit the following statements:

1. List of lands sold to City in 1913, unredeemed with amounts.

2. List of lands sold to City in 1914, unredeemed with amounts.

3. List of lands sold to City in 1915, unredeemed with amounts.

4. List of lands sold to City in 1916, unredeemed with amounts.

5. List of lands two years in arrears.

rears and subject to sale with amounts due.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

G. W. SMITH, A. T. STEPHENSON, Commissioners.

CONFIDENTIAL REPORT ON OILER, HAMMOND & NANTON PROPOSITION

They offer to pay the 1916 arrears in three monthly instalments, April, May and June, provided they are given a year's extension to pay the balance of 1915 taxes without further penalty being added.

The balance of 1915 taxes is approximately $7,000.00, the 1916 arrears are approximately $10,000. Our solicitors advise that it is not advisable to enter suit for the arrears.

The lands that are two years in arrears (approximately $7,000) can be advertised for sale and the Company can pay this amount and then clear the lands from the tax sale. No action can be taken to sell the lands for the 1916 taxes, so that by paying the balance of the 1915 taxes they can evade any further action except by suit. If this is paid the money must be put in the Savings bank account and will draw interest at 3 per cent. We cannot make any use of the 1915 money until September 1, 1918, and may possibly not require it until September 1st, 1919. If the 1916 taxes are paid, amounting to approximately $10,000, it can be immediately applied to reduce the note against 1916 arrears (now $18,500) on which we are paying 7 per cent. interest, compounded monthly, and it is in our financial interest to pay off this 1916 note as soon as possible. As a financial proposition their offer should be accepted, but the difficulty is that it will establish a precedent, though this case, owing to the legal impediment to suing for these arrears, is hardly parallel to any other on our tax roll, and the Council might be justified in dealing with it on its own grounds without the precedent being applicable to any other owner in the future.

Respectfully submitted, A. T. Stephenson, Commissioner.

The report was received and adopted.

Moved by Ald. Gubraith and Day that the applications of the Village of North Red Deer for exemption from school taxes for 1917 and further years on lots 21 and 22, Block 24, Plan 7004-S be not granted for the reason that the Section 82 (7) of the Village Act mentioned refers to exemptions from taxation for village purposes. Carried.

One fact that must have impressed those who listed bills in the sales recently held in Edmonton and Calgary is the amount of money which buyers are willing to pay for "finish." In every case those animals that were smooth and soft in the hair, loose in the hide, and that carried a fair amount of fat, brought good prices. On the other hand, the bull that had no bound and generally out of condition sold at a low figure.

The story told by practically all of those who were offering "out of condition" bulls was that grain was scarce and the prices too high for them to buy, and they thought they would pull their animals through on straw, with a little hay added, and let them make what they would. In every case the man who properly fed $25 worth of grain to his bull got $75 for it, because of the superior and growthy condition his animal was in.

And high grain feeding is not only unnecessary but it is undesirable when preparing young bulls for sale. Roots may be used to advantage as a substitute for a large portion, if not the greater portion, of the grain ration, and the animals benefited thereby. Roots (turnips, swedes or mangels) will keep the hide well low and the hair soft. They will keep the digestive organs in good tone and the blood cool. As a result the animals will be much less likely to develop vices than if they were heavily fed on heating grain.

Roots produce enormously in practically all parts of Alberta, and the class animals and raise the standard feeding value of an acre of roots is several times as great as an acre of grain, to say nothing of their tonic effect. A piece of raw root may be heavily manured and then broken up and thoroughly disced and sown to swedes broadcast, and a thousand bushel crop harvested in the fall without further attention. The sooner our breeders realize this fact and act accordingly, the sooner they will establish their own reputations as breeders of high-class animals and raise the standard of their stock's sales.

W. F. Puffer, nominated for Lacombe, April 24—W. F. Puffer, M.P.P., was re-nominated by acclamation Tuesday at the Liberal convention for the provincial constituency of Lacombe. The convention, which met at 1:30 p.m. in the Cosmopolitan, was attended by about 130 delegates, including from 20 to 30 ladies.

Game Act Amendments

At the recent session of the Legislature the Game Act was amended, and now provides for a close season on antelope until the first of October, 1925.

It also provides that wild geese shall receive the same protection as wild ducks, the open season being from the first of September for both ducks and geese until the 15th of December, with a bag limit of 30 ducks per day or 200 for the season.

The clause relating to the killing of White-winged Scoter, (commonly called black ducks), north of Township 50, has been repealed. These birds will now receive the same protection as other species of ducks.

The shooting of swans and cranes is now prohibited at all times. All shore birds are now protected, there being no open season therefor, except for Black-bellied Plover, American Golden Plover, Wilson Snipe, Greater Yellow Legs and Yellow Legs, the open season for these birds being the same as for ducks and geese, i.e., from September 1st to December 15th.

The shooting of prairie chicken (sharp-tailed grouse, pintail grouse, partridge (Ruffed grouse), is prohibited until the first day of October, 1918.

A treaty has been entered into by the Dominion of Canada and the United States for the protection of migratory birds. It provides that there shall be no shooting of migratory game, song or insectivorous birds during the spring migration. It specifically provides that "crows and cranes shall be protected throughout the year, for at least ten years, also that no shore bird, other than those specified above, shall be hunted or shot at, at any time."

A Young Girl of Lille

The French foreign office has given out the following testimony, signed by Mademoiselle E., a young girl of known family in Lille. The other names, which are likewise, for obvious reasons, represented by initials, are also known. No comment on such a statement will be needed.

"Between two and three o'clock in the morning, soldiers raided the houses—generally street by street—and, to avoid any revolt or riot, machine guns were brought up to sweep the streets.

"Respectable young girls and others were carried off pell-mell together, and all had to be subjected to the same treatment. Before their departure, under threat of severe punishment, they were made to sign an agreement saying that they were 'voluntarily' Mademoiselle E. and her companions were told they were in the service of the King. Mademoiselle X. was sent to atrocious deeds. All the women and young girls who were to serve officers were examined bodily, with the speculum—in your interest as well as for our health," the German military authorities said. The family of Mademoiselle X. paid 2,000 marks and she was allowed to return two days before her turn at this medical visit.

Railway Accident at Nordegg

At a speed of twelve miles an hour the C.N.R. train ran into the tail end of a standing work train a mile east of Nordegg last Friday at noon. Engineer J. Scott jumped and had both legs broken, one at the ankle and the other just below the knee; fireman Kerstead stayed with engine and was injured. A watchman of the work train that was on the mixed engine also jumped and was considerably hurt, and a brakeman on the work train that had just completed cutting in the air was also hurt. The passengers received a shaking up but none of them were injured. The injured were taken to the Nordegg hospital, and fireman Kerstead proceeded with the damaged locomotive to Big Valley, where the crew of the work train proceeded with the mixed.
